Today’s Readings: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12/ 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17/ John 2:13-22
Today we celebrate a Church. The Lateran Basilica is the Cathedral of Rome and the mother church of the entire world. A Church building is important – it is a place where we come to worship. But we are also reminded that we ourselves are a temple, and just as Christ is present in our churches, he dwells within us. “Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up.” The Jews said, “This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?” But he was speaking about the temple of his Body.” May Christ ever dwell in us.

St. Joseph’s Nursing Home
St. Joseph’s Nursing Home in Ogdensburg is the only Catholic affiliated Nursing Home in St. Lawrence County. It has a long history of providing quality physical and spiritual care for people from all of our communities. Due to ongoing changes in regulations, reimbursements and costs to assure the safety of our Nursing Home residents are being challenged. If you would like to support the ministry of St. Joseph’s, envelopes can be found by the doors of the church.

All Souls Intentions
A number of people have made requests for “All Souls Mass Remembrance”. These Mass intentions will be celebrated throughout the year but the envelopes with the intentions will also be placed on the altar of sacrifice throughout the month of November.

Being Good Stewards

This weekend we celebrate “Stewardship Sunday” in our parishes. In Bishop LaValley’s letter which was printed in the bulletin this past Sunday he encouraged us to utilize the gifts we have been given by God as a means of making a difference and bringing greater meaning and hope to our lives. We have many dedicated volunteers who serve our parish in many ways, but we need to build up our current ministries and also look to form other ministries so that our parish will continue to grow and flourish. At our parish council meeting on October 20, we did some sharing on new opportunities to bring needed meaning and hope to our lives such as with the ALPHA program which we have recently initiated in the parish. Whether we are currently volunteering or not, we all have something to contribute to building up our church. How am I using my gifts in service to our Lord?

Stewards of the Church
Stewards of God's gifts are not passive beneficiaries. We cooperate with God in our own redemption and in the redemption of others. We are also obliged to be stewards of the Church—collaborators and cooperators in continuing the redemptive work of Jesus Christ, which is the Church's essential mission. This mission—proclaiming and teaching, serving and sanctifying—is our task. It is the personal responsibility of each one of us as stewards of the Church. All members of the Church have their own roles to play in carrying out its mission:

- Parents who nurture their children in the light of faith;
- Parishioners, who work in concrete ways to make their parishes true communities of faith and vibrant sources of service to the larger community.
- All Catholics, who give generous support—time, money, prayers, and personal service according to their circumstances—to parish and diocesan programs and to the universal Church.

Stewards of Vocation
Jesus calls us, as his disciples, to a new way of life—the Christian way of life—of which stewardship is part. But Jesus does not call us as nameless people in a faceless crowd. He calls us individually by name. Each one of us—clergy, religious, lay person; married, single; adult, child—has a personal vocation. God intends each one of us to play a unique role in carrying out the divine plan. The challenge, then, is to understand our role—our vocation—and to respond generously to this call from God. Christian vocation entails the practice of stewardship. In addition, Christ calls each of us to be stewards of our personal vocations, which we receive from God.

Environmental Stewardship
As we watch the beautiful leaves fall what lessons might God be teaching us about our lives? They know when to let go so that new life can come in the springtime. What old habits need to be let go of so that new practices that are more eco-friendly can take their place that ensure a healthier planet?

STOP PHYSICIAN ASSISTED SUICIDE IN NEW YORK:
Take Action Now
New York is on the brink of legalizing physician-assisted suicide. Bill A136 has already passed the Senate and Assembly. The only thing standing in its way is Governor Hochul's veto – and she needs to hear from you. Please contact her office to voice your opposition to this harmful legislation. She has until the end of the year to sign the bill. Suicide is not healthcare. Thank you.

Collection for the Archdiocese for Military Services, USA
On behalf of His Excellency, the Most Reverend Timothy P. Broglio, Archbishop for the Military Services, USA (AMS), thank you to all those who contributed to the National Collection for the AMS last week. Thank you for supporting the men and women and their families from our own parish and diocese who serve and protect this great nation, and who defend the freedoms we hold dear. Please pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and military chaplaincy. You can learn more at www.milarch.org/nationalcollection.

The Lateran Basilica
“To dedicate or consecrate” a place to God is a ritual that is found in every religion. To “reserve” a place to God is an act of recognizing His glory and honor. When the Emperor Constantine granted full liberty to Christians in 313, they did not spare in order to construct places for the Lord – numerous are the churches constructed at that time. Constantine himself also constructed churches, one of which he was a magnificent basilica on the Caelian Hill in Rome, over the ancient Lateran Palace, which Pope Sylvester I dedicated to Christ the Savior (318 or 324). A chapel dedicated to Saint John the Baptist was built inside it which served as the baptistry. This moved Pope Sergius III to dedicate it to Saint John the Baptist as well. Lastly, Pope Lucius II also dedicated it to Saint John the Evangelist in the 12th century. Thus, the name of this Papal Basilica is the Basilica of the Most Holy Savior and of Saints John the Baptist and John the Evangelist in the Lateran. Christians consider the Basilica to be the mother church of all churches in the world. The church was destroyed several times in the course of the centuries and always rebuilt. The final reconstruction took place under the pontificate of Benedict XIII. The church was rededicated in 1724. It was at that time that the feast celebrated today was established and extended to the universal Church. Vatican News

Letter to Governor
There is currently legislation before Governor Hochul that would legalize physician-assisted suicide in New York. Bishop LaValley is urging us to write to her to veto this dangerous policy step. If you would like to add your voice, there are form letters available in the church which you could date and sign. All it would cost you is a postage stamp, and you would be making a strong statement for the value of life.
