THE ROSARY WILL BE PRAYED BEFORE MASS EVERY SUNDAY DURING THE MONTH OF OCTOBER
October is designated by the Catholic Church as the "Month of the Rosary" because in this month the Church celebrates the Marian advocacy of "Our Lady of the Rosary" on Oct. 7.
The feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, also celebrated as Our Lady of Victory or Victories, was established by Pope St. Pius V in 1571 to celebrate the miraculous victory of the Christian forces in the Battle of Lepanto on Oct. 7 of that year. Previous to the decisive battle, St. Pius V had requested all Western Christians to pray the rosary; thus, he attributed the victory to the power of the Marian prayer rather than the power of ships and cannons.

Discerning Vocations

There are many vocations in the church: married, single, religious and clergy. As a part of the diocesan “Called by Name” initiative a pitch was made at Masses this past weekend to ask your assistance in helping our parishioners, young and not so young, discern a possible vocation in the religious or clerical state. Jesus says: “The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few; so, ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest” (Luke 10:2). Sometimes a person just needs a little encouragement to take a step towards a vocation in the church so ask the Master to send out more laborers. Your prayers and your asking may be just the encouragement someone needs to consider that step. Cards have been made available in the church pews for you to write down the name of someone you think might have a vocation as a religious sister, brother, or as a priest or deacon. These can be dropped in the collection basket or at the church office.

Today’s Readings: Ex 17:8-13/2 Tm 3:14—4:2/Lk 18:1-8
Do we give up too easily in prayer? When we say a quick prayer and we don’t get instant results, do we give up on prayer, thinking to ourselves that the Lord doesn’t hear? The judge in today’s prayer gives in because he is afraid of what the little old persistent woman may do to him if doesn’t give her what is due. The Lord’s justice will be speedy, but will we remain faithful until that time? As Pope Francis keeps reminding us: The Lord doesn’t tire in forgiving us, it is we who tire of asking for mercy. Let us be persistent in prayer and may the Lord find us faithful at his coming.

Parish Council Meeting The parish council will hold a meeting on Monday, October 20, 2025, at 6:30. It’s open to the public so all are invited to attend.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY 2nd Collection today
Today is World Mission Sunday!

Today, every parish across the globe joins together for the only worldwide collection mandated by Canon Law—World Mission Sunday. Your generosity today supports the Pope’s missions in more than 1,124 territories where the Church is young or struggling.
This year’s theme—“Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples”—is a call to embody the love of God, poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit (cf. Rom 5:5). Your offering today provides hope where despair too often dominates—through the building of churches, formation of seminarians and religious sisters, healthcare clinics, and Catholic schools.

Thank you for responding with faith, love, and generosity. As Pope Francis told us, “Each of us is a mission on this earth” (Evangelii Gaudium, 273). Together, we share in that mission by ensuring that no one is excluded from the invitation to encounter Christ.

Environmental Stewardship
As you decorate for fall with pumpkins and other decorations, remember that pumpkins are food for many of our local wildlife. Please don't bleach your pumpkins to make them last longer. Instead, wash the pumpkins with 1-part vinegar per 10 parts water. This will help preserve the pumpkins without being harmful to our local fauna.

The Bishop’s Fund Appeal 2025
I have wonderful news to share! Our parish has reached its Bishop’s Fund goal, provided all pledges are completed by June 30. Our parish raised $6,548.00 with 32 families contributing. On behalf of Bishop LaValley, thank you for your generous support of the Bishop’s Fund Appeal. If you have not yet made a gift or pledge, please pray about your decision and make a pledge or one-time gift. Pledge envelopes are located at the back of the church. You also have the opportunity to make your gift and pledge payments online using a debit or credit card. Please visit www.rcdony.org/giving/donate-now-bishop-s-fund.

CALLED BY NAME: Listening for God’s Call Together
This fall, the Diocese of Ogdensburg is launching Called by Name, a new vocation initiative inviting parishioners to prayerfully consider who among us—young or not-so-young—might be called to serve the Church as a priest, deacon, or consecrated religious. During the weekends of October 11–12 and October 18–19, parishes will hold in-pew nomination opportunities. Those nominated will be invited to special discernment events in November—gatherings designed to help them reflect on God’s call in a supportive and prayerful setting. Your encouragement could be the first step in someone’s vocation journey. Let’s listen together for the quiet voice of the Holy Spirit.

IF YOU WANT PEACE IN THIS LIFE: Special Presentation by Fr. Timothy Gallagher, OMV
Friendship Group Meeting: October 30 at 7 p.m. via Zoom
A common enemy in the spiritual life is discouragement, and Venerable Bruno Lanteri masterfully assisted his directees in overcoming it through his inspired, straightforward, practical counsels. By prayerfully reflecting on these gems – which Fr. Gallagher deftly connects to the writings of other saints in his new book "If You Want Peace in This Life" – you will gain confidence in God and a greater patience with yourself.

At this meeting, Fr. Gallagher will lead us in discussing the second half of the book. He is a foremost expert on Ignatian spirituality and the life of Ven. Lanteri, and has authored several books on these themes.
