Today’s Readings: Sir 35:12-14, 16-18/2 Tm 4:6-8, 16-18/Lk 18:9-14
How easy it is to fall into the trap of thinking we have it all together.
How easy it is to justify ourselves like the Pharisee in today’s gospel. He was living by the letter of the law, but did he love his neighbor the tax collector? None of us are perfect. Like the tax collector, we are all in need of the Lord’s mercy. But do we recognize our own sinfulness, or do we measure ourselves by the worst sinners among us: well, at least I am not as bad as ... We are called to be holy, so let us aim for holiness, not mediocrity.

All Hallows Eve

Saturday, November 1, is the Feast of All Saints. Although there will not be Mass on Saturday, there will be a 4:00 Mass on Friday, All Hallows Eve. Although All Saints Day is not a day of obligation this year because it falls on a Saturday, it still would be of great spiritual value to attend Friday’s Mass.
This is an exciting time for our children who enjoy dressing up on All Hallows Eve (Halloween). On Thursday the children at St. James School will be dressing up too, not in ghoulish costumes but as some of their favorite saints. Then as a witness to this feast day they parade around town honoring the saints and reminding us of the saints we are meant to be. It’s fun to dress up and go out to seek treats. When dressing up your children this Friday evening, however, why not consider dressing them up as saints. If not as a saint, there are many other costumes to choose from but as Christians we can avoid dressing as devils or witches which may give undue attention and honor to everything the saints wished to oppose.

Serving Those Who Serve - Triennial National Collection for the archdiocese for the military services, USA
Second Collection next week
There are 1.8 million Catholics and their families serving in the United States Armed Forces, enrolled in US Military Academies, being treated at 153 Veteran Affairs Medical Centers and civilian jobs beyond US borders. These men and women are served by the Archdiocese for Military Services, USA (AMS) which receives no government funding and has no parishes rely on for support. The weekend of November 1 and 2, our parish takes up the “Serving those who serve” Collection for the support of pastoral care of our military, please prayerfully consider your gift to this every 3-year collection. More information at www.milarch.org/nationalcollection.

Memorial Mass
The month of November in our church has traditionally been a time to recognize and pray for the souls of our dearly departed. With that in mind, we would like to invite you, your family and friends, to a special memorial Mass on Wednesday, November 5, at 4:00 pm here at St. Hubert’s Church. Family members will be invited to light a candle during the ceremony.
You are also welcome to stay for a free community meal in the parish hall following the Mass.

Bazaar Update
This coming Saturday, November 1st is our bazaar. We will set up Thursday, October 30, 2025 at 10:00. It takes about 2 hours. Your help will be greatly appreciated. On Friday, October 31, I will be at church from 9am – 3pm accepting all your baked goods. The baked goods last year were very thin – so get together with a friend and have a baking party!
Bring your friends on Saturday. There will be a few different activities for the children. Also, this year we will have a 3rd Treasure Chest to buy that winning key!
It will be lots of fun and I look forward to seeing you.
Thank you, Lorraine Giardino

Environmental Stewardship
As you decorate for fall with pumpkins and other decorations, remember that pumpkins are food for many of our local wildlife. Please don't bleach your pumpkins to make them last longer. Instead, wash the pumpkins with 1 part vinegar per 10 parts water. This will help preserve the pumpkins without being harmful to our local fauna.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY
Mission Does Not End with October
As we conclude World Mission Month, we remember that the Church’s missionary work is ongoing. Our baptismal call to share the Gospel continues beyond this season, inviting us to remain engaged—through prayer, storytelling, and generous action.
The first World Mission Sunday was celebrated nearly a century ago in 1926. The need today remains urgent: missionaries still serve in remote villages, conflict zones, refugee camps, and urban slums. They bring more than aid—they bring Jesus Christ.
As St. Paul VI reminded us 50 years ago in his historic exhortation Evangelii Nuntiandi: “The Church exists in order to evangelize” (14). We are grateful for your support this October—and we invite you to continue the journey. Subscribe to Mission Magazine, join us in praying the World Mission Rosary year-round, and stay connected to the Pope’s missions through www.pontificalmissions.org.
Hope does not disappoint— and the world still needs hope.

CALLED BY NAME: Listening for God’s Call Together
This fall, the Diocese of Ogdensburg is launching Called by Name, a new vocation initiative inviting parishioners to prayerfully consider who among us—young or not-so-young—might be called to serve the Church as a priest, deacon, or consecrated religious. During the weekends of October 11–12 and October 18–19, parishes will hold in-pew nomination opportunities. Those nominated will be invited to special discernment events in November—gatherings designed to help them reflect on God’s call in a supportive and prayerful setting. Your encouragement could be the first step in someone’s vocation journey. Let’s listen together for the quiet voice of the Holy Spirit.

STOP PHYSICIAN ASSISTED SUICIDE IN NEW YORK: Take Action Now
New York is on the brink of legalizing physician-assisted suicide. Bill A136 has already passed the Senate and Assembly. The only thing standing in its way is Governor Hochul's veto – and she needs to hear from you. Please contact her office to voice your opposition to this harmful legislation. She has until the end of the year to sign the bill. Suicide is not healthcare. Thank you.
